Subject: Vouraky Genealogy

Dear Renee & Mrs. Pletka:

Concerning Panay George Voure Vouraky.

I talked to our long time friend, Chris Flesuras, about your great grandfather/grandfather's name. He made the following comments: He said that at Ellis Island many of the immigrants had the endings whacked off their names. He said that his mother's family name was shortened to Chrys. The Greek ending was just eliminated. He also said that a Greek immigrant in the late 1800's who could speak English was rare, indeed. He said that his father came to America in the late 1890's, and he knew two English words, "Hello & hot dog". He said that immigrants from Greece who knew French were much more common than those who knew English. This fact probably explains why he was chosen to be a translator at Ellis Island.

I will try to explain what he said about Panay. He said that Panayiotis translates to Peter, so the iotis was probably dropped. He said that George was spelled Georgos in Greek. He didn't have any comment to make about the Voure. He said that in his experience he has NEVER SEEN A GREEK NAME END IN Y.

With his remarks in mind, I went to Netscape to check names. I checked for VOURAKY in the entire U.S. No names came up. I then dropped the Y, and I entered VOURAK. Twenty-six names came up in the U.S. for VOURAKIS. Vourakis is a Greek name.

More about Greek names. According to Chris, about 90% of the Greek names end in S. The ending AS indicates that they may be from central Greece. The IS ending indicates that the people may be from Crete, and OS indicates that they may be from northern Greece. Other endings are pappas or polis (which loosely means the family of).

I will have Ed print the names that came up with the entry, VOURAK. I, also, entered VOURE; and I got a few names.

Mrs. Pletka, do you have anything in your records that might indicate when George Vouraky might have come to the United States. Passenger lists are valuable, but it's hard to find your ancestor unless you have specific information about dates, etc. I know that several of my ancestors came through Ellis Island, but they apparently didn't whack off the Dutch ending, sma.

I hope to get the information I have entered into the computer soon. As soon as I do, I will send you copies.
Please be sure to let me know if you find any mistakes, because I really like to do it right.

Mrs. Pletka, I failed to get your parents death date & place. If you would like to do so, you can just send me any information by e-mail, at bleach@inreach.com. My street address is Mrs. Betty Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409-6263.

Sincerely,

Betty

I didn't find Elmer Borch at Downer's Grove in 1900, so his family must have moved on. There were two other Borch families, but they didn't have a son, Elmer. Do you by chance have a copy of your parents' death certificates. The death certificate usually has the deceased parents' names if the informant knows the information.

History of Columbia County

Frederic C. Curtis. As Columbia county is still largely an agricultural community, it is eminently fitting that a prominent place should be given to the name and career of Frederic C. Curtis, who was not only one of the pioneer settlers, but a man whose original genius and enterprise made him one of the most conspicuous figures in the development of agriculture as a business and industry not only in the county but throughout the middle west.

Frederic C. Curtis was born at Stockbridge, Massachusetts, September 30, 1819, a son of Harvey and Fanny (Warner) Curtis. At Pittsfield he learned the harness maker's trade, and also acquired skill in saddlery and upholstering. In 1839 he went south and took the position of foreman in a large saddlery establishment at Columbia, South Carolina, where he remained about seven years. His surroundings were not congenial to his New England character, and finally becoming disgusted with the attitude of the citizens upon the slavery question, he returned to Massachusetts. But in 1846 he left the east altogether, and found a home in the open and free wilderness of the west, over into the wilds of what is now the town of Lowville in Columbia county, he took up land and entered upon the pioneer task of clearing a farm. After building his log cabin he returned east and on October 18, 1847 married Leizabeth Lea. Together they took up the task which awated the early settlers, in developing homes, and from that time until his death he was one of the men of strength and of "light and leading" in the community. Mr. Curtis was a man of more than usual gifts. To him belongs the credit of putting down the first drilled wells in Columbia county, and his was perhaps the first successful attempt to penetrate the rock strata in the state. This was accomplished with tools of his own designing, and these tools helped drill wells for many others.

He was a man of original ideas and an inventor. He prospered likewise, and the log cabin home which first sheltered himself and bride was replaced by a comfortable stone dwelling and practically all his buildings were of stone construction. Of a scientific turn of mind, he early saw the advantages of the modern methods of which were far in advance of his time. He was undoubtedly the first farmer in the county to bring to the attention of the public the possibilities of dairying, and his knowledge of this department of farm life led to his being called upon to lecture on the subject before Farmers Institutes, Dairymen's Conventions and other bodies. He patented a sorghum crusher. He devised a box churn and manufactured granular butter, and also originated the idea of deep settings for raising cream. While he invented or improved many things of lasting benefit, he never patented his discoveries, and was one of those quiet benefactors who often pass through the world doing great good but with less honor and reward than are bestowed upon less worthy men. On many farms in the country will now be found an octagonal barn, a pattern with many obvious advantages and this shape is said to have been first proposed by Mr. Curtis. He was selected to represent Wisconsin in the Farmer's National Congresses held at St. Paul, Minnesota, Fort Worth, Texas, Boston, Mass. Colorado Springs, Colorado, and was a frequent contributor to the press on dairying subjects.

p. 503

His face and figure were invariably seen at all the county and state fairs, and he was a valued member of these organizations and of the Wisconsin Dairymen's Association. He was chairman of the meeting at Janesville, Wisconsin, on September 20, 1865, when the Wisconsin State Horticultural Society was organized. As a Democrat he stood high in the councils of his party: as a man of sterling worth and integrity he was a conspicuous figure in Columbia county, and the State of Wisconsin. He died February 10, 1902; his wife on February 10, 1889

Dear Betty,

Your interesting material came while we were in the Poynette area hunting deer, at least that is what my husband was doing. I go along to keep the other Deer Widows company.

Thank you for all the material. I have glanced at it briefly, but it did stir up some of my grey matter. I don't know why I didn't refer to the Curtis history that Hugh's grandmother gave us when your first request arrived. I guess I just looked at the names and finding that I didn't recognize any, assumed that none of "your Curtises" were from "our" line. I still have not found a Susan, but surely have found some other very colorful names:Prudence, Elnathan, Rhoda,Mercy, Barnabas and Orry...

The Curtis History that we have, was compiled in 1922 by a Theodore Curtis of Chicago. It is a small book, probably 8" x 9" and printed with a mimeograph, so that all of the material is purple...and fading. It is very fragile. Some of it is no longer readable. It dates back to 1621 when Henry Curtis married Elizabeth Abel.

If you should ever be in this area and would like to look it over, we would be glad to let you do so. But I doubt that it would be of much help.

There is this notation that might be of interest to you... "The Revolutionary War Record of Abel Curtis was taken from page 251 in the Record of Mass. Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution, Pub. by Wright and Potter Printing Co., State Printing, 18 Post Office Square, Boston, Mass 1698.

The author also laments: "There is much delay in compiling a record of this kind due mostly to parties not replying to letters requesting information."

I am enclosing some more information which you may keep. It was sent to my by a Bennett cousin (Elbridge's line) who thought I might be related to F.C. Curtis. Evidently she had better luck getting things copied than I did.

Best wishes for successful hunting!

Norma Curtis

On the second page of the information you sent me:

"Samuel Curtis, son of Robert and Susan Curtis, must have moved to Wisconsin by 1893. His son, Robert, age 12 in 1905, was born in Wisconsin."

I wonder if this Samuel Curtis might be the man who married Telina B. Curtis (Tinie), the daughter of Elbridge Curtis. Most of the information I have gleaned has been oral history, and I was told that Sam Curtis was "no relation"...that, of course would make it fitting and proper to marry "our" Curtis. HIs son Robert, age 12 in 1905, was born in Wisconsin. (Our history confirms his birth in 1893, November 6th.)

Also: "Telina married Sam Curtis and died in Bellingham, Washington leaving two daughter, Neva Curtis Powers and Lillith Curtis Spragg. Their first born Child, Robert (Robbie) died in Columbia County, leaving his wife, the former Agnes Porter and his little daughter Lillith who later became Mrs. Clarence Hebel."

Sam and Telina were married December 3, 1890. They made a trek "out west" in a covered wagon and escaped being attacked by Indians.

Last page:

"Children of Robert and Susan Curtis...Sam, born 18 Feb 1865"
(our history lists Sam Curtis, husband of Telina as 24 Feb 1865)

Also this note about JOhn Hopkins:
settled in Cambridge, Mass. in 1634, his son Stephen "established a mill on Mad River, Waterbury, Conn. in 1680. His eldest son, John was a town clerk, his son Samuel, born 1721 a divine (?) his son Mark a Colonel of the Berkshire Militia in 1776. Mark's son Archibald, a farmer who lived and died at Stockbridge, Mass. married Mary Curtis. To this couple was born mark, Henry, and Albert. Mark was fitted for college by his uncle Rev. Jared Curtis then principal of Stockbridge Academy. In 1821 Mark entered Williams College. Later he became the 4th Pres. of Williams College. 1832-1872. Born Feb. 4, 1802 - died June 17, 1887.

The only Hopkins I can find in the Columbia County History is A.G. Hopkins of Cambria, a small town east of Poynette, and the names of his children don't "match".

Dear Norma,

Thank you for your letter, your picture, and the article about Lilith. We are going to Southern California next week to visit a daughter, so I'll have her take our picture. When I get them developed, I'll send one to you. I feel you are right about it being a nice idea to put a face on the person to whom you are writing.

I have been waiting for the copies of vital records from Portage. I have enclosed copies of marriage records for Susan and Henrietta Hopkins, cousins of my grandmother. Susan married Robert Curtis & Henrietta married Andrew J. Curtis. Andrew's record shows that he was born in Rutland County, Vermont. I have some rough notes from a visit to Vermont several years ago, so I'll check to see what I have. I am also enclosing a death record for Robert Curtis. I should have known it wasn't a record for Robert, Sr.

I had the use of the 1850 Columbia County census at our public library, but, too late, I realized that I had cut off part of Joseph Curtis' household when I made the copy. The 1855 State Census showed 7 males in his household. Our daughter's apartment is only about 15 miles from an Archives Branch at Laguna Niguel. I'll check the Lowville census for 1850 again, 1860, 1870 (1870 census is usually a very poor quality microfilm) and 1880.

It's kind of a challenge to try to put the Lowville & Dekorra Curtises into family groups. Another Curtis question concerns my great great grandmother, Susan (Curtis) Salisbury, b. 1796, NY; d. 1838, Erie Co., PA. To date, I haven't been able to find out anything about her.

A Bennett question: A descendant of George & Eliza Hopkins said that Elsie A. Hopkins, born 3 February 1843 married a Bennett. I have this marriage/record from 17 October 1858 of a marriage between Mr. Francis Keefer, of Dodge County, and Miss Elsy Anne Hopkins of Dekorra. I wonder if this Elsie later married a Bennett.

We have been getting a lot of rain the past few days, but we need it to fend off another drought.

Thanks again for your letter. I always enjoy receiving them. Do you have an e-mail address. Our e-mail address is bleach@inreach.com.

Sincerely,

PS I'll send you the rest of the Lowville Curtises as soon as I get to the census again.

Dear Norma:

Thank you so much for the Columbia County material on the Curtises of Lowville. You're right. I was pronouncing it Lōwville.

I know it was a lot of work to type all the material, and I do appreciate it. I spent many happy hours last night trying to identify the Curtises who appeared in Lowville & Dekorra on the 1855 & 1875 State censuses with the biographies you sent.

During October, we took a 27 day trip. We visited relatives in ND, MN, & MO; but before we started home, we went to Madison and Portage. We also stopped in Poynette and looked for Curtises in the cemetery there. We only spent a brief time at the courthouse. but I did find some information. My husband, Ed, tried to read microfiche of the early marriage records for three of my grandmother's cousins. I'm planning to write for copies of these records. If I can get copies, I will enlarge them for easier reading.

Eliza Hopkins, the mother of the three women listed below, was a sister of my great grandfather, Daniel Salisbury. Daniel lived in Dekorra in 1860, but he moved to Dane County, Westport, by 1870.

Lydia A. Hopkins married William H. (Henry) H. (Harrison) Kiefer, October 19, 1857. WITNESSES AT THE WEDDING WERE ROBERT CURTIS OF LOWVILLE & J. C. CURTIS OF DEKORRA.

Henriette Hopkins married Andrew J. Curtis, July 4, 1856, at the home of George Hopkins (her father); WITNESSES WERE JOSEPH & ABIGAIL CURTIS.

Susan Hopkins married Robert Curtis, November 5, 1856, but Ed wasn't to locate the microfiche. ROBERT CURTIS WAS ONE OF THE WITNESSES AT LYDIA HOPKINS WEDDING IN 1857.

(I have wondered if Joseph W. Curtis, Lowville, 1855 State census with 7 males and 2 females was the father of Andrew J. and Robert Curtis. It seems to me that it is a possibility. Anyway, I love to speculate on possible relationships.) Do you suppose that either William W. or William H. Curtis buried in Rocky Run Cemetery was the marrying Justice of the Peace.

You are right. Now that we're retired, we wonder how we ever had time to work. We seem to be occupied all the time.

My other Curtis problem (and I have no leads whatsoever) is another Susan Curtis, born 1796, New York, married 1810, James Salisbury. They were the parents of Daniel Salisbury and Eliza (Salisbury) Hopkins.

To answer some of the Curtis questions, I need to check the 1850, 1860, and 1870 Federal census for Columbia County.

Sincerely and thanks again,

Betty.

Dear Betty,

Thank- you for the Christmas card and census information. I'll put it in the Curtis file.

My genealogy talents are somewhat limited, I'm afraid, because I am more interested in oral history than in dates, etc. even though I know those things are important.

I got "hooked" on genealogy about 15 years ago when my father was in his nineties! He was one of those people who could have been the history-keeper, like the person in Africa did long ago. He had all the names, dates, occupations, and gossip in his head. So one winter when he was house-bound I interviewed him about his siblings and his German immigrant parents. When that was completed, I decided to "do" Hugh's lines and I found he had lines upon lines, and most of them led back to Telman Nestor Bennitt of Lowville, Columbia County, Wisconsin. The Curtis line became involved with the Bennitts when Elbridge married Mary Bennitt, and just like Adam's descendants they multiplied and covered the earth (or at least much of Lowville).

It's fun, and I enjoy it - for awhile, and then my head begins to swim with names and dates and relationships and I have to put it away for awhile.

The Bennitt (Bennett) line needs to be brought up to date and I think I'll get out the new material I have collected and try to put things in order.

A very good amateur genealogist is a Bennett "cousin" whose name is

Dorothy Bennett Hasey

She is much more proficient and careful in her research than I am and she knows local sources. She has done some research for people, but lately she has had some health problems and I don't know how much she is able to do, or if she has the time. She and her husband are retired farmers.

I'm enclosing a Christmas photo so you can put a "face to the name."

Sincerely,

Norma Curtis

Why don't you send me a photo ?!

No Salisbury is listed in the index. But there is this notation in the biography of FRANK HALL - p. 573 -

"Up to the time of his marriage his occupation was farming. In 1896 Mr. Hall moved to Doylestown, where he conducted a general store one year. Since that time his residence has been in Rio, where in partnership with Kennedy Scott, he engaged in the handling of potatoes and seeds up to 1912. At that date Mr. Scott retired from the firm, and Mr. SALSBURY took his interest, leaving the firm under the present style of Hall and SALSBURY, with warehouses at Rio and Doylestown....

GUY J. CURTIS.

Now serving as chairman of the town of Wyocena, Mr. Curtis is one of the enterprising young farmers of ths vicinity and has spent all his life in Columbia county.

Guy J. Curtis was born December 11, 1872, in the town of Otsego, Columbia county. When he was seventeen years of age, his family moved to the village of Pardeeville, and since 1894 he has lived at his present location, and has been carrying with much success his operations as a general farmer. His education was acquired chiefly in the schools of Fall River. Mr. Curtis is proprietor of what is known as the old Edwin Spear farm, located on secion twenty......

On March 3, 1896 was solemnized the marriage of Guy J. Curtis and Mary Newton, a daughter of Thomas Newton of Wyocena. They are the parents of three children as follows: Flint N. Curtis, born April 17, 1899, and now in high school; Helen, now deceased; Netheta, born October 31, 1912. Mr. Curtis is an active Republican, and has filled the office of town clerk, was school clerk three years, and is now chairman of the town. He fills the office of clerk in the camp of Modern Woodmen of America.

There is a delightful reminiscence by Hugh Jamieson entitled An Old Settler's Memoirs in which he describes his courtship and marriage. Hugh Jamieson was Poynette's most prominent citizen...

"Upon that Sabbath morning, I hitched the old lady's mare onto the buggy, and with a young man of my acquaintance, started for the residence of MR. WILLIAM CURTIS, some five miles distant, who was then a justice of the peace in the town of Lowville. My object in going there at that time was to ascertain if he was at home and to inform him of my intentions to be at his house the same evening with a young lady to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

MARRIED BY SQUIRE CURTIS

Mr. Curtis gave me to understand that he would be on hand, and when I made my appearance at his residence in the evening, accompanied by her to whom I was about to be united, the squire was ready to receive us.

VILLAGE of DE KORRA

In the fall of 1842, Thompson and Trimble, Ohio men, became owners of the greater part of Secions 5, 6, 7, and 8, including the site of the paper village of Kentucky City. They sent out J. W. Rhoads and Thomas C. Nelson, as their agents, to build a mill, lay out a village and establish a store at that locality.

The village of De Korra was thus laid out, the plat being recorded January 7, 1843. Its site, that of Kentucky City was considered ideal, on account of the fine landing at this point.

FIRST SETTLEMENT COLUMBUS

The first settlement of the town was at what is now the City of Columbus, and was promoted by the agents of Lewis Ludington in 1839-45. In the summer of 1843, the cabin of T. C. Smith was the only house northwest of what was then the incipient Village of Columbus until Ft. Winnebago was reached.

Dear Betty,

I apologize for having you wait six months for any information from me but it seems that since my husband retired ten years ago we have been in some kind of a whirlwind...Never been so BUSY in all our lives. It's hard to try to account for what we do with our time, but it seems that every day is packed with things to do.

It doesn't look like the search for Susan Curtis is over, at least from the material I was able to glean. Today I tried to have the material copied on a machine, but the books were too thick for the machine to work properly. I typed what I thought would be of some interest to you, but my eye-hand coordination would never win a prize, so I hope you will bear with the typos.

I hope you find your ancestor and if you do, please let me know. I will rejoice with you. I know how hard it is sometimes to find the name for that empty space.

The only possibility left might be "William Curtis", the marrying squire, but there doesn't seem to be any information about him other than being mentioned in the memoir of Hugh Jamieson.

I'm enclosing a list of Curtises who have their names on tombstones in Rocky Run Cemetery, which is in the area where our ancestors lived and where my husband and I plan to be buried. No Susan there, though.

Just as a bit of information: Lowville rhymes with Cow-ville...

Best wishes,
Norma Curtis

ELBRIDGE CURTIS (our relative):

farmer, Sec. 18; P.O. Poynette; born Nov. 2, 1826, in the town of Maine, Broome Co., N.Y., son of John C. Curtis; came to Wisconsin in the fall of 1849, and settled in the town of Lowville, the next winter, where he made his home with his brother. Was married in 1857, to Mary E. Bennett, who was born in 1841, in Chemung Co., N.Y. has seven children living---Irene (now Mrs. Harrison Cutsworth, of the town of Pacific), Alma, John C., Tinie, Lewis B., Harry and Edgar, all at home except the one married; lost one daughter, Sarah, 15 months old. He is a Republican, and has been Supervisor and Assessor, and has been Pathmaster for the last twenty years; has 180 acres of land.

F.C.CURTIS (a long biography, similar to 1914)

A few points...b. Sept. 3, 1819, in the town of Stockbridge, Berkshire Co., Mass. his father's name was Harvey Curtis who was a descendant of Miles Standish, of the Mayflower Pilgrims, of the seventh remove from that somewhat distinguished personage. His mother's name was Fannie Warner of Canaan, N.Y. His father removed to Canaan, N.Y. when he was 4 years old.
He was married at Canaan Four Corners, Columbia Co., N.Y. Oct. 18, 1847, to Miss Elizabeth Lea, daughter of George Lea and Ellen Hallenbeck of Richmond, Mass. They left for Wisconsin on the same day and arrived at Milwaukee No. 1, after a very boisterous passage around the lakes of eleven days.

Their children are Mary Anna, Now Mrs. O.D. Orvis of San Francisco, Cal,; Emma, now Mrs. A.H. Carman, of Morgan Park, Cook Co., Ill.: Ella C. Curtis and Lizzie, residing at home; George L., who died Dec. 20, 1860. Mr. Curtis is a Democrat. His farm consisted of 270 acres; his buildings are mainly of stone, made in a substantial manner, which have the appearance of lasting as long as they are well roofed...

Sanfords book. Early History of the town of Hopkinton, NY in Hopkinton John Leach was mentioned as a neighbor of Rufus Greene.

John Leach was mentioned as father of David Leach. In the book Havana, ND is mentioned. John Crum Leach lived in Havana for a few years after moving from Somers & Racine, Wisc. We believe John Crum was a younger brother of David.

John Crum Leach m. Mary C Greene, daughter of Rufus Greene & Betsey Weed.

Sanfords has the wrong wife's name [illegible] for Rufus Greene

We a copy of David Leach's death certificate - gives father's name as John Leach & mother as Abigail Ellis. We have never been able to find a record for John & Abigail Rufus Greene moved to Hopkinton abt 1835 from Shelburne Chittenden Co, VT. Sanford had a note of Rufus' death about 1845 from tuberculosis. His wife, Betsey & family, were in Wisconsin at the time of the 1850 census.

We dont have Rufus b. date or parents names. We dont have a birth or ~~the~~ exact death date for John Leach. We believe he is buried in a Parishville Cemetery

Hi Jeanne,

"My" Daniel, son of Joshua, was born 1776-1798, therefore he was older than the Daniel Curtises you found in the 1850 Censuses. At any rate there is no Eisha Curtis in my immediate family tree, so I doubt very much that your Elisha is related to my family. If he is, he would have to be very remotely connected.

My guess is that the Elisha in the 1850 Census you found was the father of the Daniel, head of the household.

I, however, am interested in the two Daniels you found in the Censuses for Cass County, MI. I wonder if they were related to the Asa Curtis who moved to Cass County from Monroe County. Hmm...

BURIAL: Records gave her burial site as Grave 4, Lot 95, Block 28. (Mound Cemetery burial records)

These sources were used for the following notes concerning research into the possible ancestry of Mary Leach's father, Rufus Greene:

Louise Brownell Clarke, EXCERPTS FROM THE GREENES OF RHODE ISLAND, compiled from MSS. of the late Major General George Sears Greene, USA (New York: 1903), pp. 214-219,

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND OLD FAMILIES OF RHODE ISLAND, GenealogicalRecords and Historical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens and of Many of the Old Families. . ., 3 v. (Chicago, J. H. Beers, 1908,), pp. 1282, 1283.

VITAL RECORDS OF RHODE ISLAND, "East Greenwich--Births & Deaths", p. 120.

NOTES: These notes concern Rufus Greene & Betsey Weed, parents of Mary C. Greene, wife of John Crum Leach. Rufus & Betsey were married in Hinesburg, Chittenden Co., VT, 30 August 1807. Rufus died 6/7 April 1847 in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co., NY, at age 60 from consumption. His birth year was about 1787. It was calculated from his age at the time of his death. Betsey Greene & two of her sons, Melville & Ira, were in Somers, Kneosha Co., WI, at the time of the 1850 census. [These compilers believe that John & Mary knew each other in NY; but to date, we have not been able to locate either John or Mary on the 1850 census.] Although we have researched Greenes in New York, Rhode Island, & Vermont, we have found no conclusive information about Rufus Greene's parents or siblings. [We believe, however, that he was possibly a descendant of Rufus Greene (Jabez, James, Surgeon John) of "E. Greenwich" & Martha, daughter of Joseph Russell, Jr., of Dartmouth, MA. Their children were Abraham, b. 2 Oct 1736; Russell, b. 9 1738/39, d. age 29 from drowning; Phebe, b. 20 Oct 1740; Mary, b. 20 Mar 1743; Joseph, b. 20 Mar 1745; Rufus, b. 17 Jan 1747; William, b. 13 Mar 1749; Caleb, b. 31 [sic] Jun 1751; Charles, b. 28 Jul 1753; Stephen, b. 16 Jan 1756; Martha, b. 20 Apr 1758, d. 30 Apr 1759; Jonathan & David, b. 16 Apr 1760; & Martha, b. 23 Jan 1763. The grandchildren of Rufus Greene & Martha Russell have been identified with the exception of the children born to Rufus, b. 1747, & his wife, Margaret, & William, b. 1749, & his wife, Mary Sheffield. Rufus & Margaret had a daughter, Nancy, b. 1770, in RI; but it is likely that Rufus & William moved to New York State before their other children were born.

Three other children of Rufus & Martha Greene lived &/or died in NY. Mary, wife of John Reynolds, moved to Hancock, Delaware Co., NY; Martha, wife of George Harris, moved to Stamford, Schoharie Co., NY; & David, a mariner, died in NY in 1792, his wife, Eunice Hopkins, died in Lawrence/Laurens, Otsego Co., NY, in 1836.

Was Rufus Greene, b. about 1787, husband of Betsey Weed, & father of Mary C. Greene, a son of either Rufus or William Greene? A suggestion of a possible relationship was provided when it was discovered that Jonathan, a younger brother of Rufus & William Greene, was a close neighbor of John Weed, Betsey Weed's father.

Early New York State vital records do not exist and Vermont records are incomplete; therefore, alternative sources of Greene vital information need to be found. Many questions need answers, but chance, just plain luck, & perseverance may play a part in finding answers to the Green ancestry. A look at census & other available records for Mary's siblings may prove helpful.

iii. Caroline, b. 1805; d. Apr. 18, 1813.
iv. Infant dau., d. Nov. 4, 1808.
v. Infant son, d. Nov. 4, 1809.
vi. James, b. Oct. 3, 1812; d. Mar. 8, 1813.

SIMEON GRAVES, with David and Perez, presumably brothers, came to Royalton in 1815, and settled in Royalton village in the hatter's business, and perhaps also they had a blacksmith shop. Their premises were near Elkanah Stevens' store. Simeon married Gracia ——, and a daughter, Miranda, born in 1819, m. Dec. 25, 1861, Sylvester, son of John and Amy Banister, a shoemaker. On May 21, 1820, Amasa Edson, a son of Simeon, was baptized. The name of David's wife was Sarah, and Anginette, a daughter, died July 19, 1817, aged 12 yrs. 3 mo.

GREEN FAMILY.

IRIJAH GREEN, parentage unknown, was probably the first of the name in Royalton. He was here in the early 1780's. He married, Mar. 18, 1784, Sarah Boutell, probably the widow of Enoch Boutell, and a son, Enoch, was born Dec. 31, 1786, who died Feb. 9, 1817, buried at E. Bethel. Enoch married, Dec. 25, 1810, Betsey Morrill, and d. Feb. 9, 1817. Irijah was probably the Irijah who was pensioned July 7, 1819, then 69 years old, and who died Sep. 20, 1824. The estate of Irijah of Royalton was probated Sep. 30, 1824, and a son Milton was then mentioned. Irijah lived on the farm north of Mr. Fayette Greene.

URIAH GREEN, of whom little is known, came to Royalton in the 1830's. His wife's name was Sarah, and he had a son, Uriah, and a son Josiah B., born 1838, who married Oct. 30, 1867, Ella C., daughter of Horace and E. W. Bowman of Barnard, born 1848. He was in Bethel when he made his first purchase of land in 1826. He lived on the Fayette Greene farm and built the house now standing thereon.

Other members of the Green family who paid poll tax in town were Pliny, 1794-98; William, 1795-99; Benjamin, 1795-98; Cyril, 1798-1804; Alpha, 1798; James, 1810-12.

EDWARD ALLEN GREEN, son of John and Harriet (Osgood) Green, and grandson of Stephen Green of N. H., b. Mar. 4, 1844, E. Randolph; m. Nov. 11, 1867, Bethel, Mary Ellen, dau. Moses and Mary Ann (Barker) Webster, b. Dec. 25, 1848, Roxbury; d. Sep. 10, 1910, Sharon. Rem. from Randolph to Roy. abt. 1866; teamster for M. S. Adams twenty years; seven years on the Martin Skinner farm; soldier of the Civil War, discharged at close of the war; see "Pensioners," Chap. XXVIII; res. with son Pearl, Roy. village.

QUESTION

How do I build my network of connections for an ancestor in my tree?

ANSWER

Member Connect is a feature on Ancestry.com that helps you discover and collaborate with other members who also happen to be researching your ancestors. If you have a family tree on Ancestry.com you'll find a tab on each of your ancestor profile pages called Member Connect. Within this area you can find others who also have your ancestor in their public family tree, and connect with those that are interesting to you in order to build a network of others researching your ancestor.

Under the main Member Connect tab on an ancestor profile page in your family tree, you'll find another button called Suggested Connections. Here you will find a listing of other members who appear to be researching your ancestor, and you'll be able to view what they have about your ancestor in their public member tree.

You can then choose who to connect with, just by clicking the Connect button next to the listing. After you connect with them you'll be able to compare their tree with yours, so that you can make updates to your tree if you learn something new about your ancestor. You'll also be notified about the changes they make in their tree in the future when you click on Recent Activity under the Member Connect tab.

To see who you've already connected to your network for a specific ancestor, just click on Connections under the Member Connect tab. Here you will see a listing showing the information about your common ancestor in the pubic member tree for each of your connections. You may find connections here that you didn't make in the Member Connect tab. This is because whenever you accept an Ancestry Hint from another member's family tree, we make a connection for you automatically. You can always remove someone from your list of connections just by clicking the Remove link at the upper right of the listing.

Within the Connections list you can also quickly see the differences between what one of your connections has in their tree about your ancestor and what you have in your tree. Items in your connection's tree that are different than what you have are listed as Conflicting. Items that they have that you don't have are listed as New. When you click the Conflicting and New buttons you will have the option to save the information to your tree, view it in your connection's tree, or ignore it so that it doesn't show up as Conflicting or New anymore.

I think that Betsey Weed's sister, Polly/Mary, married the Rev. Hiram S. Johnson. Hiram was ordained as a pastor ot he First Congregational Church in Hopkinton on Nov. 14, 1814. They show up in 1850 Saint Lawrence Co., NY. They both are 61 (b. 1789). They had a son Edward, b. 1822, who shows up in Potsdam, St. Law. Co., at age 38, with a wife Catharine, age 35. They may have migrated to Elkhorn, San Joaquin Co., CA, as there is an Edward & Catherine, both born NY, with fathers born CT & mothers born MA.

The History of the Gregg Cane

> Most Gregg researchers, especially those descended from the Quaker Greggs, are familiar with the stories of the silver studded ivory handled cane which has passed through generations of Greggs to the present day. The version of the story below comes from the book Quaker Greggs by Hazel May Middleton Kendall, and the book " The Ancestors of Gregg Livingson Neal", but there are researchers who disagree with Kendall that John Gregg is descended from Black John of clan Gregor or received the cane in gratitude from King James I. We do know there is no doubt the cane exists today and there is a link to a photo below.

King James of Scotland, also known as James VI of England, encouraged Scots to colonize Ireland. Thousands left Scotland for Nova Scotia and Ulster. After King James second visit to Scotland in 1617, many communities of various clans moved to Ulster. John Gregg descended from the second oldest son of Black John of the Coat of Mall, (a descendant of Kenneth MacAlpin) lead the Gregs from the clan MacGregor. John Gregg received the cane from King James I in esteem and appreciation of his influence and responsibility in the removal of the Gregs from Scotland to Country Antrim, Ulster about 1618.

John Gregg settled in the barony of Glenarm, County Antrim, Ireland on the northeast coast. During the reign of Charles I (1625-1649), Ulster Presbyterians defying their treatment joined General Robert Monroe's Scottish army at an insurrection at Carrickfergus in May 1653. William Gregg , oldest son of John Gregg, was forced to leave his inheritance of Glenarm Barony in 1653. He was the first to inherit the Gregg Cane which his father decreed should be handed down to the second son in each generation because the oldest customarily inherited the land.

William was born in Scotland in 1616. He moved to Waterford County, Southern Ireland where he died about 1672. He had three sons, John, William, and Richard. John and Richard died in Ireland. William left Ireland in 1682 with the silver studded ivory cane he had inherited from his father.

William Gregg was among the many Greggs who became Quakers when William Penn visited Ireland in 1678. The Quakers, called Friends, arrived aboard the ship Caledonia in Upland, now Chester County, Pennsylvania in 1682. William arrived with his wife and four small children and settled down the Delaware River at Christiana Hundred.

William's four children were John, Ann, George, and Richard. The book, Quaker Greggs, by Hazel May Middleton Kendal, says John administered the estate, and George inherited the cane, but we know from the present owner of the cane that the cane ended up in the John family line. The present owner of the cane is Stanley Charles Gregg, of Knox, County Ohio, who plans to give it to his second son Randy.

These photographs were taken by my Aunt and Uncle,
Betty and Bud Shepherd, on a visit to the home of Stanley Gregg in Ohio in April of 1996.
John Gregg received the cane about 1618 so the cane was 378 years old at the time of the photograph.

The bio was on ancestry.com but I also found Ira in a death index from the MI Dept. of Community Health that has a different death day in Nov. 1871. It also incorrectly lists Ira as a female:
Date of death: 20-Nov. 1871

American Biographical History of Eminent and Self-Made Men with Portrait Illustrations on Steel, Volumes I-II
Name:

Name: Rev. Ira Mason Weed
Ypsilanti, was born January 14, 1804, in Hinesburg, Vermont. His father, John Weed, was a native of Danbury, Connecticut; and his mother, Dolly Phelps, was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Mr. Weed's early life was passed among the hills of his native State. He prepared for college with his brother-in-law, Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Hopkinton, New York, entering the University of Vermont, at Burlington, in the Sophomore year; and graduated in 1825. With the intention of making the law his profession, he spent one year in the office of Judge Fine, of Ogdensburg, New York. During this time, his conversion took place, and his thoughts turned toward the Christian ministry. He at once relinquished his law studies, and entered Andover Theological Seminary. In the spring of 1829, he was licensed, by the association at Andover, to preach the Gospel; and, during the fall of the same year, was ordained at the Park Street Church, Boston. In May, 1830, he was married to Miss Caroline N. Dutton, of Hillsboro, New Hampshire, and removed to Ypsilanti, Michigan, where he entered upon his chosen work. Here he found a few to co-operate with him, although many sought to counteract his influence. His consistent Christian life, however, his bold presentation of truth, and his fearless denunciation of wickedness, won for him the respect and esteem of the entire community. He maintained a firm and decided stand in the cause of temperance, but with so much wisdom that those who were engaged in the sale of liquor harbored no ill will toward him, and when he left the place they expressed regret at his departure. In the fall of 1834, Mr. Weed was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church to which he had already ministered for four years. His earnestness, good judgment, and thorough acquaintance with the rules of the church, made him a valued member of Presbytery and Synod, while he often represented his constituents in the General Assembly. Although devoted to the interest of his own church, he was in full sympathy with other religious denominations, and many of his warmest friends were connected with other churches. In 1847 he removed to Chicago, Illinois, having accepted the position of District Secretary for the North-west, of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. This cause had always lain near his heart, and he engaged in the work with characteristic ardor. His field of labor embraced Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. During those days there were no railroads, and the greater portion of his traveling was done in his own conveyance. He continued in this position for ten years, laying broad foundations of benevolence in the churches, and, at the same time, aiding pastors in their work. In 1855 he removed to Waukegan, Illinois; and, after remaining two years, accepted the agency of the educational institution which was projected at Lake Forest, one of the suburbs of Chicago. In 1862 he removed to Granville, Illinois, where he ministered to the Presbyterian Church, of that place, for four years. At the end of this time, he returned to Ypsilanti, Michigan, his health being much impaired. Unable to resume pastoral work, the few remaining years of his life were spent in filling vacant churches in the vicinity. His death occurred on Thanksgiving day, November 30, 1871, at Ypsilanti. He left a wife, three daughters, and one son, to mourn his loss, and a large circle of friends to revere his memory. Mr. Weed was a man of warm sympathies, possessing remarkable power in winning the affections even of those whose lives were not in accordance with his teachings. He had genuine love for children, and possessed the rare power of interesting and pleasing, at the same time that he instructed and guided them. His religion was that of caim devotion, settled conviction, and firm principles. He was a close student of the Bible, and eminently a man of prayer. His name is greatly honored, and his influence still lives.

Hi Ed,

I trust that you both made it home safely. I found Rufus & Betsey Greene's son Pliny living with Chas. E. Green in 1850 Sacramento. He's listed as, P. P. Green. I could not find Pliny in 1860 but when I did a web search I found his gravestone. He was a physician & died in 1850 from cholera. Unfortunately, the photograph of his stone is too small to actually decipher.

Ed, print out this list, discuss it with Betty & decide which microfilms you'd like for me to look through, although every one of them should be viewed in my opinion. The rental cost for each film from Salt Lake City is $5.50. I may also be able to print the actual records. It just depends on the size of the microfilm.

Microfilm possibilities regarding the Greene & Leach families in St. Lawrence Co., NY

1.) Parishville, NY, Cemeteries; St. Lawrence Co. Historical Association, NY

Fairview, Chapel Hill, Riverview, Hillcrest: film # 1451080 item 14

Rogers, Furney, Blake, Coulon, Long Bow: film # 1451081 item 1

2.) Cemeteries of St. Lawrence Co., NY; (county clerk) includes Town of Hopkinton; Misc. headstone listings; microfilmed alphabetically at Stockholm Historical Organization in Winthrop, NY

Film # 1901555 item 5

(this viewing would be fast because it's alphabetical)

3.) Births, Marriages, Deaths, St. Lawrence Co., NY, 1847-1849 (county clerk records)

Film # 556598 item 2

(This would be in regard to Rufus Greene)

4.) Wills of Real Estate (NY) 1830-1847; NY Chancery Court; microfilm of original records at the office of the clerk of court of appeals for the state of NY in Albany;

10.) (John Leach) "Letters of guardianship, v. 1-2, 1830-1861"

Film # 890057

(this might flush out something regarding John C. Leach being orphaned & ending up in the care of David Leach) includes index; subject: probate records

Film: “Wills of Real Estate, v. 1-3, 1830-1847“; # 17415

5.) Probate Records, 1830-1919; indexes, 1830-1955; St. Lawrence Co., NY (surrogates court)

(Leach & Greene) “Index of wills & proceedings, A-M, 1830-1955“; film #890040

Note: the index would certainly speed up the process of finding the actual will)

6.) (Leach & Greene) “Wills, v. 1-3, 1830-1851”

Film# 890012

(This is the actual microfilm featuring the wills & should be rented along with #5, the indexed microfilm)

Dear Betty,

Charles and I have just returned from 8 days of vacationing in NYC. The trip was wonderful, as I had never been there. We packed in as much sights as possible in our time there.

We made time to visit two special places seeking information about the ship manifest for our family. But, first we visited Castle Clinton where our family entered the US. It is now a national monument with a website you can access: CastleClinton.gov. The facility is now the ticket booth site for purchasing tickets to both the Statute of Liberty ferry and the Staten Island ferry. There is a small museum there but no attendant to ask questions of.

Two days later, we passed a lovely building housing the New York Historical Society. After inquiring about ship manifests, they helped us with a little information (some of it inaccurate.) But, they sent us on to the New York City Pulblic Library where there is an extensive collection of genealogy information. The librarians there were as excited to help as I was to be there. Very quickly they had the information off the Ancestry.com. website.

Now, you may have already tried accessing this site, but you will quickly be told you must pay $155 for a membership. Well...the NYC library has free access for users who come to the library!!! Can't access from out-of-state homes.

The original manifest was probably destroyed by a fire about 1898 in the Immigration Office. However, through the Holland American Passenger Line, the manifest could be found (I assume.) Very quickly up came the list of the Siderius family who sailed from Amsterdam in June, 1885. Depending on the weather, the trip took 12 to 14 days. I almost cried when I learned that the family was able to travel first class. Perhaps John and Fred made sure their family was well cared for.

J. Siderius, age 44 yrs., is listed as head of the household. Do you know if Akke Siderius had a different name? I've never know of that. Or perhaps it was recorded incorrectly.

If you Google the Schiedam passenger ship, there is lots of information about the ship, and it's sailing years to NYC from Amsterdam fit with the family's arrival. Also, coincidently, in the Netherlands, the town of Schiedam is the center for distilling jenever. It is located near Rotterdam.

I'm enclosing the information found at Ancestry.com. Hope you are as exciting to get this information as I was to find it!

Much love, Maxine

Hi! Hariette King, passed along some family news. Lorraine Siderius' daughter, LuAnne, died on May 21, 2006. She was born 9-14-34. LuAnne had been ill for some time. I only knew of her through other family members. M.

The first log church was built and the first cemetery was located in Section 6, Township of Springfield, Dane County, Wisconsin. The first burials were in this cemetery. There are no longer any markers standing and no burials made for many years. It is also overgrown.

The second stone church was built and the present existing cemetery was in Section 31, Township of Dane, Dane County, Wisconsin. Burials are still being made in this cemetery and is kept up very well.

The third church, a wood frame, was built in Section 36, Township of Roxbury, Dane County, Wisconsin. There was no cemetery at this location. This church is no longer standing. The last members of this Church joined other congregations.

The "History of the Evang.-Lutheran St. John"s Congregation" which follows gives the history up to the year of 1920.

The plat map and the two maps from the Dane county survayors office shows the location of the two cemeteries.

The readings of the memorial markers of from the cemetery in the Township of Dane.

The copy of the death register is from the church register of The St. John's Roxbury Congregation. This register is located at the St. Paul's and St. John's of Marxville and Berry Church Parsonage 8775 Hwy. 19, Mazomanie, WI., 53515.

There are three registers for this congregation. The first is difficult to read. Some pages are faded and others are difficult to read because of the ink from the front and the back of the pages soak thru the soft paper. Another of the registers covers only the years 1885-1911. The third covers the years 1849-1957. It appears as if some of the data from this register was copied from the first book. There appear to be some some dates different and some entries in the first book that aren't the the later. The first register also gives more information on some of the earlier people who died, such as place of birth. Some of these records can be read but wouldn't copy well enough to enter with this information.

There are also sone dates that don't agree with the Church register and the memorial markers. The dates of birth don't always agree between different records in the book.

Re: Your Letter of June 27, 1999

I made not have been very clear in my last letter, sorry about that. What I ment was that Old St. John's Luth. Cemetery has not been copied at all as far as I know. At least we do not have it in our files. The reference to Sec. 6, refers to the location of the cemetery within that township. A section is a square mile and is part of a legal description used for property location.

I rechecked all of Dane County for any St. John's Cemeteries, and came up with 5. We have records for all of them except for the one in Springfield township (Old St. John's Cemetery). They are as follows:

Berry township
St. John's Luth.,sec 20/21
Dane township
St. John's Luth., sec 31
Middleton township
St. John's Luth., sec 5
Springfield township
Old St. John's Luth., sec 6
Westport township
St. John's Ev. Luth./in City of Madison, sec 25

I checked each of these and no Salisbury's were listed. Enclosed is some information from our files about St. John's Congregation which indicates there are no markers in the cemetery in section 6. This appears to be Old St. John's in Springfield township. This would explain why we have not copied it. There is nothing to copy. This information was not filed in the Springfield township portion of our files, but in an adjoining township where the church is now located. Best of luck in your search. If I can help in any way,let me know.

Dear" Cousin " Betty,

Thank you very much for sending me such a wealth of information about the Salisburys,particularly Aaron. He was the father of my grand father,Orange James,who was my mother's father.Her name was Stella Salisbury McCornick.She had three brothers,Orange James,Walker and Blaine.

Orange James,my grandfather ,had left Erie County to drive a stage coach in the West.Subsequently he owned a stage coach company with a man named Gilmore.I believe Monroe helped him get started.The company mainly serviced the mines by carrying the pay role and other monies. There were frequent robberies and a family legend tells that Grandfather carried a bullet in his back to his dying day.After a while he got out of the stage coach business,invested in mining,became "an industrialist" and moved to Salt Lake City. he died around 1907,or so.

My Uncle,Orange James,had three children,only one of which had a son who carried on the Salisbury name for this branch,Donald Salisbury.He lives in California and is just this summerthe proud grandfather of the newest member of the clan,whose name is ~~James.~~ (I) Aaron— Donald—

This is all somewhat of a digression from your 9-9 father.However,I am enclosing all the information that I have gathered up to date.I think the Genealogical service supplied by the L.D.S. Church seems to be quite thorough and I will go again to see if I can find more. There is a branch of this service not too far from where I live.I am not a Mormon,but they don't seem to mind at all.Also I understand that there are Vermont records in Litchfield Conn.,which I can research.

Again,thank you for the photo stats ,the charts and the bit about Monroe,which I did't know.Unfortunately my mother was reticent about talking about family history.

It would be such a pleasure to meet you and your husband when you come East.I live about one and one half hour north of New York City,which could be on your route north. If you plan to fly to Buffalo,I would like to meet you there,as I too am planning a trip to Erie Co.to look into old newspapers,amomg other research projects.

The town was redistricted into road districts in 1834 as follows:

- No. 1, Phineas Durfey neighborhood.
- No. 2, Jonah Sanford locality.
- No. 3, Turnpike from village to pinnacle, near Isaac Snell's, and roads south.
- No. 4, from village west near Caleb Wright.
- No. 5, village to Laughlin's east line and north from Philander Brown's, Chittenden's store corner to Stockholm.
- No. 6, from Laughlin's east line to centre of bridge over St. Regis River at East Village.
- No. 7, road from Joel Goodell's southeast to town line.
- No. 8, from bridge over Jakeway Brook to Joel Gould's and south to Joseph Howard's.
- No. 9, from Joel Goodell's southeast corner north to end of Mead road.
- No. 10, roads north from cemetery and by Isaac Austin.
- No. 11, from pinnacle near Isaac Snell's to Parishville and by-roads.
- No. 12, all the roads in that part of the town called Gossville.

A Mr. Goss was an early settler and had quite a large tract southeast from Parishville in Hopkinton up near Squire's mills, which section took the name of Gossville, as I learn from an old map.

I can't think of anything off-hand that I need your help with right now. That's great how you received another old photo!!! Don't you just love looking at them? I inherited my father's entire collection and was it ever fun going through the originals & then printing up negatives we'd never seen.

I spent over an hour today trying to figure out how my gr. grandmother Pearl McMahon is related to her 2nd husband, John L. Dunn. She said, "I married my cousin." Amazingly enough, someone posted part of a Drip family bible online. The guy said that someone stopped at a yard sale in Indiana & there was the bible for sale & for only 25 cents! The couple bought it because they had a friend in Marion, Linn Co., IA, who was a Dripps fellow & they gave it to him but he just tucked it away until it was inherited by a grandson. It has Isaac Dripps (who married Elizabeth Myers) & they were the parents of John Dunn's mother, Margaret! That Elizabeth Myers is supposedly a daughter of Frederick Myers & Mary Riffy. She was the 2nd child born, in 1815. George Myers was the first in 1813. He's the one in the photo I sent to you.
Isaac Drip/Dripps b. Jan. 10, 1811 VA, died Sept. 17, 1869, age 58, Knox Co. OH. No dates on Elizabeth in the bible I guess. I'll have to see if I can contact the person who posted it. Another cousin has: Elizabeth b. Sept. 14, 1815 Stony Creek, Shenandoah VA; d. after 1900 Knox Co. OH & that's what I put on the family group sheet. The census records fit the b.d. of 1815, except in 1900, Elizabeth says she was b. Sept. 1816 VA & she's 83. I hate those discrepancies in the records!!!

Isaac and Elizabeth are in the 1860 Milford Twp., Knox census. (I need to still find them in 1850)

In 1870 Elizabeth is widowed & has a house full of kids. She's still alive in 1880, living with her daughter Welthy, who married a William Dunlap. In 1900, Elizabeth is still with William Dunlap & grandkids but Wealthy is dead.

A family tree came up next to Lucinda Conard as a result of my family tree entry, Leach Family Tree.

You may have seen it already. The tree name is Crooks/Conrad Family Tree, owner: Jec7725. Her ancestor was Catherine Conrad (two of the children were listed as Conrad, but the other 10 were listed as Conard. Catherine was b. 1795, d. 1838. Her parents were Anthony Conard & Mary/Molly Kyst. The earliest ancestor on her tree was Thones/Dennis Kunders/Conrad, spouse Linjntjen Teissen.

Was Conard & Conrad used rather recklessly in the early days?

My e-mail is now working, but Ed's wireless printer is much much better than my desk top.

This week has been very hot. Weather is changeable here. Happy ancestor hunting, Betty

I'm going to try to track down more pictures tomorrow. I hope the picture well isn't completely dry.

Hi,

I found Marie age 37 with her husband, Philip Bender, in 1930 Chicago. Philip is enumerated as "Phillips" & his age is way off (40) but it's them. Philip also shows up in the WWII draft cards: Philip Vance Bender; born July 7, 1886 Salix, PA; lives at 223 N. Villa Ave, Elmhurst, DuPage Co., IL. He worked as an employee of Commonwealth Edison Co. in Chicago.

The SSDI: Philip Bender, b. July 7, 1886; d. Sept. 1963; last residence Montana. Marie's sister, Edith (Jones) Bentley, lived in Montana.

I still don't think that Philip & Marie had any children. There is just no indication of that.

That draft card address matches the address on a card they sent to John Dunn, who was my Gr. Grandmother Pearl McMahon's 2nd husband. John & Pearl lived in Lisbon, Linn Co., IA. John's son sent me a box full of cards & letters back in 2004. There are all sorts of letters about Pearl's illness & death & about Sadie (Conard) McMahon, her mother, who also died in 1939. The letters are very sad & it seems that everyone was struggling financially. I got blue just reading them!

I can't figure out when Marie (Jones) Bender died! On the cards & letters to John, she sometimes used the name "Mary." The 1900 census says that Marie was born Sept. 1891 but there is nothing in the death recs. with that year. Only one for: Marie Bender, b. Sept. 15, 1892; d. July 1975 in Spokane, WA. Issued in IL.

Hi Sandy:
I wrote a note concerning this message, but apparently I omitted a vital step. Click send.

I'm on my way to Office Max again to make enlarged copies of these messages. I want them to be a bit easier to read.

It appears that the sad letters were written during the Great Depression. Indeed, people were struggling and cash was in short supply. Cash was always king to my parents.

This great progress on the Conard/Myers is exciting. I'm sure it means a lot to Ed. Vera died when he was only 6 1/2 years old. Betty

I would love to watch you work for a day or two. Betty

Hi Sandy:
Is there anything you would like me to research. Please give me an assignment if it would help in anyway.

We got another picture yesterday from Ed's sister, Sally.
The people are not identified, but we know that it is Vera on the right, Dorothy in the middle, & Leola Leach Hyde, Edward James Leach, Sr's. youngest sibling on the left. The children have to be Jane & Vera, Ed's older sisters. We had never

Dear Betty,

I've been going to write to you for a long time. I still haven't found James or Esther's parents but have found more on Salisburys in N.Y.

I found a lady in Elkhart, that her Salisburys were in Connent Co, Pa. I was thinking that was where Yours came from.

I have been doing research but on other lines as I can't get past James. I did find some land records from the information you sent that one time. I also got that guardian paper from the grand mother of Romeo. I couldn't believe it didn't mention her name. I have found out her last maiden name was Tewksbury + a Sister. But can't find any more.

Hope everythings great with You.

LOIS ANN OAKES
LETTER DATED
SEPT 20, 1987

Ashton, So. Dak.
May 13, 1974

Dear Mrs. Baker,

GOOD LORD...this should be great...I can't even remember what YEAR it is!

Our last letters must have met in Punkin Center or some far place as I had just mailed mine when yours came. I wanted to tell you my latest brainstorm, even though it was some years getting to me...information is not much help unless you get it before you look in all the wrong places. The following appears on the picture I have of Jay's grandfather's grave monument:

CORN. S. v.d.FEEN
born at
geb. te N. B. DYK - NIEUWE BILDTZIJL FZ
23 Sept. 1846
died
overl. te O. B. ZYL - OUDE BILDTZIJL FZ
21 April 1926

As limited as my dutch is, this says to me that he was born in this N. B. DYK place, and not in O. B. ZYL...right? Seems to me that is the place to start. We saw Jay's sister, Clara, (fleetingly) last week, and I asked her about it. She was like 4½ when they came here but said she remembered walking from O.B.Zyl to Ferwerd to visit her mother's people and it was like two miles or so, and she thought this other place also was just another little parish or whatever and very close to O.B.ZYL. (She thought the N. meant "Nieuwe" (new), probably). I know my explanations are more confusing than anything...but I hope this will be of some help.

A bit more in the way of explanation! Jay's mother and father always were 'mother' and 'dad' to me...mine were 'mama' and 'papa'. (Now that they are all gone, I have to stop and think to figure which was which!). Mother couldn't write...so it was I who wrote to Ada. [illegible] Would you believe...there was a time that I averaged 50 letters a month, writing to my own people and all theold dutchmans mother wanted to hear from. The old dutchmans would write back (in dutch) and I couldn't read it and then I would ask her and she would say, "Uncle Pete is fine. He liked your letter. You write again right away." It was a little difficult, to say the least....

I also keep thinking about this old Jentze D. There was another Siderius here, Ralph. I never knew where he fit in other than that the folks said no way was he related to them. Jentze D. could be from that branch...

Have had a busy week or so here. Jay's brother, Henry died suddenly May 2nd...the day after his 68th b'day. We made a fast trip to Nebr. to pick up his sister and then all flew out for funeral (Oregon). It really is the wrong season for us to go but one can't plan those things. Spent a day in Portland with my sister and then rushed home....and it has rained about every day since, so we are getting behind. Jay has tilled the garden four times and always something happens that he can't get it planted! No matter, it is too cold for it to grow, anyway.

While in Portland, my sister and I made a fast trot through Lloyd Center...and finally found a dutch-english dictionary. I have an old diary that uncle Jay kept when he came here. Translation by comparing bibles is no cinch, I can tell you. This should help loads and I was thrilled to death with it.

Hope this from gravestone will be some help to you. Do write again. Sincerely,

Phyllis

Attention: Pat

Dear Pat:

I talked to you this morning about an obituary and other relevant information for Sarah Ann Myers, b. November 27, 1839, in Knox County, Ohio. She married Edmund C. Wilson, b. January 1842, New York, about 1862.

Sarah died August 14, 1918, in Montezuma, Jackson Twp, Poweshiek, Iowa.

E. C. Wilson, 1880 census, Edmund C. Wilson, 1900 census, and Edward C. Wilson, 1910 census was counted in Jackson, Poweshiek County, Iowa. Sarah, wife, was listed with him on all 3 censuses. In 1910, his son, John, and his daughter-in-law were with them. The census taker just recorded Edmund's name incorrectly on the 1910 census.

Are old photos from local families ever turned over to your Society? We have no pictures of our great great grandmother, Lucinda Myers Conard, and her sister, Sarah Ann Myers Wilson. Sarah had 1 living child, John age 41 in 1910, but unfortunately, John and his wife had no children to save family papers or photos.

Pat, we really appreciate your efforts on our behalf.

Our check for $15. is enclosed.

Sincerely,

My Father's Side – Eastern Europe

Both Martha and Frank Pletka's ancestors came from countries which, at the end of the 19th century, were suffering from poverty and cultural repression under foreign rule. Although little documentation exists, it is known that Martha's family came from Poland, a country which at that time was divided up three ways – one part ruled by Germany, one by Russia, and the third by Austria. It was a difficult time for small landowners and poor farmers. One can only speculate as to why Martha's parents left their homeland. If they were living in the northeastern part of Poland controlled by the Germans (and it is possible, since Pucka, Martha's maiden name, is also the name of a town in that area), then they could have been one of the families forced off their land by German settlers in 1886.

More is known about Frank Pletka's side of the family, as a baptismal certificate traces them all the way back to several small villages along the Vltava River near the town of Tyn nad Vltavou in southern Bohemia, now a part of the Czech Republic. (See the Pletka Family Tree at left). Czechoslovakia split up into two parts – the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic – in January, 1993. Bohemia was part of the Austrian empire at the time that Frank's parents emigrated to the U.S.

For Frank and Martha, growing up in the United States the children of emigrants, differences between the Czech and Polish languages and cultural traditions were smoothed over. As the Czech language is similar to the Polish language, so do the foods share many of the same characteristics. Meat is a staple of the diet, with noodles, dumplings or potatoes almost always accompanying. Common vegetable side dishes are salads made from beets, cucumber, or cabbage. A wide variety of pastries and cakes are made using cheese and fruit fillings and toppings.

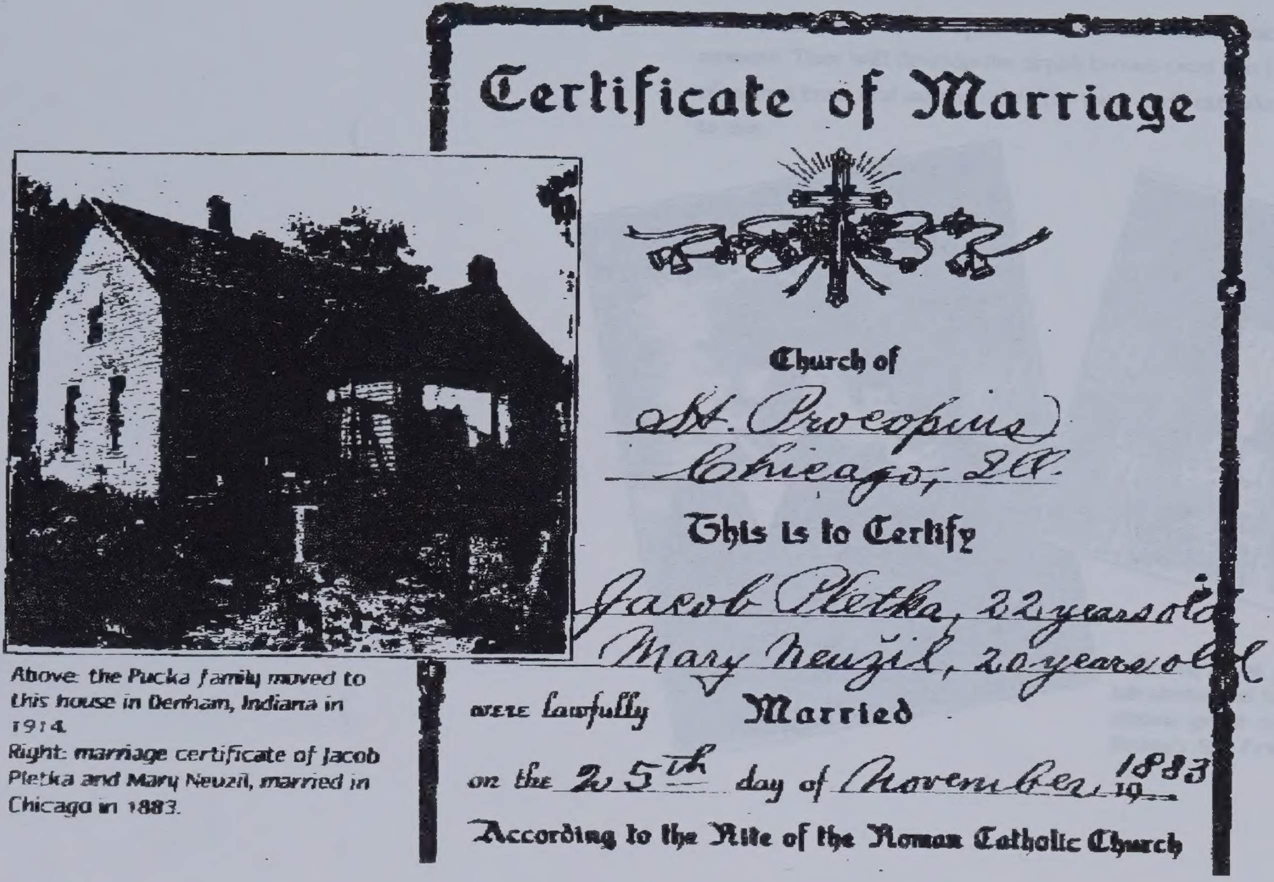
I record some of these recipes in this book, not because they are particularly unique, but because of the happy memories and traditions they represent.

My Mother's Side – Western Europe

While my father's side were country people rooted in farming, my mother's side was mostly a city bunch, a mixed bag of nationalities spanning from north to south in Western Europe. My great-great-grandfather came from England, and ran a successful bookstore in San Francisco in the 1890s. Few recipes have survived the generations; but my mother remembers saffron cake as being one of her favorite English treats.

Little is known about my Greek grandfather, except that he served as an interpreter on Ellis Island. I remember a few Greek dishes appearing on the table when I was a child, including spanikopita.

My Greek/English grandmother cooked German dishes for my grandfather, whose family came from Berlin. Potato pancakes, pot roast and pigs' feet with sauerkraut were the usual fare for my mother growing up during the Great Depression in Gary, Indiana.



Above: the Pucka family moved to this house in Denham, Indiana in 1914.
Right: marriage certificate of Jacob Pletka and Mary Neuzil, married in Chicago in 1883.

Put the buns on the upper shelf and the loaf tin below. Check the buns after 20 minutes. They will develop the dryish brown crust that is the delicious characteristic of saffron buns and saffron cake. The cake itself can take up to an hour, depending on its size.
